ONE BY ONE.

BY RICHARD REALF. One by one earth's wrongs are smitten, One by one its errors fall; One by one are carved and written Truth's great triumph over all, One by one the dreary places. Glow with green and gush with light; One by one God's finger traces Moons and stars upon the night.

One by one are rent and riven All the links of Hell's hot gyves; One by one the chords of heaven Gently, strongly clasp our lives ; One by one earth's bitter weanings Leave us nearer to the skies; One by one life's higher meanings Break like sunlight on our eyes.

O the weary months of sorrow! O the long and solemn years! O the yearning for the morrow, That should give him joy for tears; O the unnestling heart's great anguish O the wasting of the frame-And the love that could not languish, And the spirit singed with flame!

Let it pass; the blessed throbbing Of the purple heart of morn Drew its pulses from the sobbing Midnight-setting in her scorn; And the calm soul's higher thirsting And the light of truer eyes-These are but the upward bursting Of the seeds of sacrifice.

Therefore-though the iron shackle Clasp and clench the writhing spheres Though the red fires flame and crackle Through the ghastly shuddering years. Though the green earth weep unshriven, And thick and mildew blast the sun, Still shall all save man and heaven Pass and perish one by one.

tion to his sister: NEW ORLEANS JAIL, May 29, 18-79, - Sister Mary Magdalen. St Mary's Dominican Convent, Dryades street, New Orleans. If you have been the means of my incarceration here, as is the case I am told, and of my terrible consequent suffering in a crowded cell, sleeping on the floor, and nearly dead from heat, you have much to an swer for. Can you get me out? Of course I must at once leave the ciry, as I can get no employment after this dreadful episode. I have no time to write more. The bearer, a gentleman connected with the press, will explain all. I am in rags, no clean shirt or anything. Send me word by bearer Your brother, W. T. CORBET.

A SPLENDID OFFER! READ IT

The Courier will be greatly improved during the ensuing year. It will furnish all the local news, notices of meetings, assessments, tax and other sales, markets, etc., etc., giving information that every resident of this county ought to have, and cannot deprive himself of, without being likely to lose many times the cost of the paper. The Village, Farm, Town and County Talk on subjects of local interest, will be supplied fully in our columns, besides much interesting reading. All this can be had at scarcely 4 cents a week, or only $2 for the entire year!

And Better Still. Almost everybody knows the high value of the American Agriculturist a journal that has just completed its 37th successful year. It is a large, beautiful journal, full of plain, practical, reliable, most useful information, for every man, woman and child. It prints every year 700 to 800 original engravings of labor-saving, labor-helping contrivances, many of them home-made; also of animals, plants, construction of buildings, etc., etc. The American Agriculturist also constantly publishes exposures of the various humbugs and swindlers that prey upon the people with their artful schemes. These expesures save tens of thousands of dollars to its readers every year.

it is supplied to subscribers, post-paid, for only $1.50 each year.

We are happy to announce? that we have made arrangements to furnish to cash subscribers, BOTH the Courier and the American Agriculturist, for the small sum of only $2.65 a year, both post-paid, which is but a trifle over five cents a week. Who will not smoke one cigar less a week, or save five cents from some other needless expenditure, if necessary, to constantly supply himself and family with both of these journals? Remember, only $2.65 pays for the Courier and the American Agriculturist, both sent post paid for a whole year. Please tell your neighbors of this.

Send in your subscriptions at once. The American Agriculturist is just entering its 38th annual volume, and now is the time to subscribe.

And Still Better. The publishers of the American Agriculturist have secured Marshall's new, large, magnificent Steel Plate, "THE FARMER's PRIDE," one of the finest works of this great artist, whose pictures of Washing-ton and Lincoln are of world wide repu-tation. So fine is this new work that Mr. New Machinery,

Marshall received $3,000 for engraving the steel plate alone. It was so highly valued that thirty good judges subscribed $25 each for 30 copies of the first or artist proofs, and no copy of the picture can be bought for less than $5.00. AN APRIL FOOL MARRIAGE. Jack Allen the "Great American Joker," Pays $2,500 tor Breach of Promise.

[Clarkesvile (Tenn) Tobacco Leaf.] Quite an interesting case for breach marriage and fraud came up in the Circuit Court Friday. The suit was brought two years ago by Mrs. Jane Elliott against Jack Allen. It will be remembered that the Tobacco Leaf, in April, 1877, gave an account of RIPLEY, Jack Allen's April fool marriage, gotten up, as Allen stated, to April fool Squire Griffin Orgain; but it seems that Jack carried the joke too far and carried it on a little too long, and didn't fool the 'Squire much, as the

> The following day, however, Jack met with the 'Squire Orgain and they came to the Loaf office together to have the marriage announced. They were both in a jolly mood and Jack seemed very happy. Uncle Griffin old Jack that he ought to pay $5 for the ceremony. Jack said no; that his wife would pay the bill. Later in the day Jack told the 'Squire that he was not married; that it was simply a joke gotten up to April fool him; and that the liceuse, as he would see by examination, was bogus. "By grannys," replied Uncle Grif., "you can't fool me; I am an officer of the law and am not to be trifled with. I performed the marriage ceremony in good faith. under the solemn authority of law and by grannys' its got to stick." And t seems from the testimony that it did "stick" for about six or eight weeks, when Jack Allen pulled out and mar. ried another woman, and Mrs. Elliott brought suit for $5,000 damage. There was a strong array of legal talent on both sides, considerable sparring with the lawyers and much good humor and wit. The jury, after hearing the clear charge of Judge Stark, retired and in a few minutes brought in a verdict, in which the plaintiff was given $2,500 damages, enough to cover the whole of Jack Allen's estate.

ago, and, bearing that the so-called spirit photographs were being taken at a certain place, went to try his success in securing, upon the same negative with his own, the faces of deceased acquaintances He succeeded to his own satisfaction, which we will presume was the more easily obtained because of the fact that he was before a firm believer in Spiritualism. On returning to Danville he beso much for the value of the picture as he does to establish the fact that photographs of spirits are actually being taken. The trial will take place on the 22d inst. and it is expected that a large number of witnesses from the photographers, the clergy, The Danville Express, in commenting upon the alleged phenomenon, says: "To same time, a setting of familiar faces other than the sister, involves a mystery we are waiting expectantly to know what manifestations are to come next." It referred to will develop, but it is to be hoped that it will be sufficiently thorough and exhaustive to set many minds at rest on this question.—[Rochester Union.

The recent decision of judge Hughes and most singular case came to light of the Fifteenth amendment and the passage of the civil rights bill turned his back on all the dusky belles of his acquaintance and aspired to the hand of the white race. His suit was successful, and they were quietly married in Washington. They returned to Cumberland and lived happily and unmolested until about two years ago, when the wife died suddenly and rather mysteriously. Coleman was a marrying man, but having been united to a white woman considered it beneath his dignity to take 'unto him one of his own race for better or for worse. He again wooed and won another white female, twenty seven years old, again repaired to Washington, and on the 31st of May, 1878, was married to

All work done at reasonable rates and the woman were terror stricken at the prospect of serving a lengthy period in the State prison, but in the case of the woman death interposed. She died suddenly on the 25th inst., the day before that set for the trial. Some people in the neighborhood think that the great mental excite-HAVING REFITTED RICE'S OLD STAND, AND NOW RECEIVING AN IMMENSE | ment consequent upon arraignment for violating the law was the cause of her death, but others are juclined to the opinion that Coleman poisoned his opinion is so generally shared and the circumstantial evidence points so was exhumed and the stomach has been sent to Dr. W.
